LETTER TO COUNSEL RE: Pandora Jewelry, LLC v. Chamilia, LLC, Civil No. CCB-06-600

Dear Counsel:

This will confirm the results of our telephone conference today.

Counsel will submit a revised agreed-upon scheduling order in accordance with our discussions. The Motion to Bifurcate and Stay Discovery (docket entry no. 29) is Granted, also consistent with our discussion, although counsel will attempt to avoid the need for redeposing any fact witnesses. In light of the bifurcation and stay, I assume that the subpoena for documents served by plaintiff will be withdrawn, and accordingly, the Motion to Quash (docket entry no. 41) is Granted. A Markman hearing has been scheduled for Friday, February 16, 2007 at 10:00 a.m.

Despite the informal nature of this letter, it should be flagged as an opinion and docketed as an order.

Sincerely yours,

/s/

Catherine C. Blake
United States District Judge
